Captures 145 Men, All But One of Whom Are Locked Up.

NEW YORK, December 12.-Led by District-Atterney Jerome, the police tonight raided an alleged gambling-house in Tenth Street and arrested 150 men, all but one of whom were locked up, charged with having refused to aid the police when a felony was being committed.
One man was charged with running a rambling-house.

The new tactics of the districtuttorney were apparently a great surprise, not only to the prisoners, but also the lawyers and bondsmen, who flocked to the lawyers and bondsmen, who flocked to the station to ball out the prisoners. Fictitious names are often given following such a raid, but to-night the district-attorney instructed the sergeant at the police station to swear the bondsmen to make oath that the prisoners names and addresses given at the station-house were correct.

Although lawyers appeared at the station-house with bondsmen, the sergeant remained firm and in nearly every case refused to allow ball. The result was that at a late hour the majority of the list men were still held at the station.

ITALIAN SHOT DOWN BY "BLACK HAND" ASSASSINS

NEW YORK December 12.—White celebrating his forty-fifth birthday anniversary with his family and a number of guests at his home, at Bath Beach, to-night. Frank Massa, a well-to-do saloon-keeper, was shot and instantly killed by one of three assassins who had gained entrance to the house. All three of the men escaped,

It is said that about a week ago Massa was visited by an Italian, who claimed to represent a "Black Hand" society, and who demanded M.000 from Massa mader penalty of doath, Massa answered that he did not have that much ready money, and his visitor sepeated his threat as he left.

Richmond, Va., Dec. 8, 1998.

Dear Miss Brinkhaus.—We enjoyed having you with us so much the other day, and hope you will soon come again, and speak to us fbout the statues. The 6-B grade got 1.784 votes for the week, and have only twenty-nine scholars on the roll. I am afraid if we don't work a little harder Springhold will beat us.

Mr. Crenshaw is working very hard to keen shead, and I do hope he will succeed.

Hoping you will come again to Central School, I remain.
